

Briefing for Texas State Agencies on EPA's Retrospective Case Study in Wise County, TX

US EPA Region 6 office
1445 Ross Ave, Dallas, TX 75202
(Fountain Place Building, corner of Ross Ave and Field St)
12th Floor Conference Center 1595 Wynkoop Street, Denver, CO 80202
Webinar: <https://epa.connectsolutions.com/r20o3po5ljc/>
Call-in Line: (877) 744-6030
Conference ID: 45958515

May 13, 2015
9:00-10:00 am CDT

Purpose: Briefing on the EPA's report, Retrospective Case Study in Wise County, TX: Study of the Potential Impacts of Hydraulic Fracturing for Oil and Gas on Drinking Water Resources. The information presented at this meeting and discussed is embargoed until publicly released.

Draft Agenda

- | | |
|-----------------|--|
| 9:00 am | Welcome and State Introductions
Ron Curry, Regional Administrator, US EPA Region 6
Teresa Marks, Principal Advisor on Unconventional Oil and Gas, US EPA
Dr. Tom Burke, Deputy Assistant Administrator and EPA Science Advisor, US EPA Office of Research and Development |
| 9:10 am | Opening Remarks/Study Overview
Dr. Tom Burke |
| 9:15 am | Presentation on EPA's Retrospective Case Study in Wise County, TX
Kelly Smith, National Risk Management Research Laboratory,
US EPA Office of Research and Development |
| 9:30 am | State-EPA Discussion
All (led by Dr. Tom Burke) <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Questions and answers- Messaging- State Actions |
| 9:55 am | Wrap-Up
Dr. Tom Burke and Teresa Marks |
| 10:00 am | Adjourn |